Dear Mr. Ambassador:

My colleagues in Intelligence and I extend a cordial invitation to you to serve as CIA Guest Speaker on Tuesday, 13 June, at 3:00 p.m. in the CIA Headquarters Auditorium at Langley, Virginia. Our hope is to benefit from your vast knowledge of the cultural influences affecting Japan's role in world affairs. We would suggest as a topic, "The Cultural Sources of Japanese Power," although we would be glad to have alternative suggestions.

p.m.*

The CIA Guest Speaker Program brings to CIA employees and guests from other agencies of the Intelligence Community the viewpoints of leading scholars, government officials, and other public figures on areas of concern to the Intelligence Community. It consists of a formal lecture of approximately 45 minutes, followed by a 30-minute question period. The Guest Speaker honorarium is $500 in addition to round-trip air transportation.

If 13 June is not convenient for you, we would be happy to discuss an alternative date even though our program normally runs on the second Tuesday of the month. Our Special Programs Officer, [REDACTED] will be pleased to discuss any detail of the arrangements with you. She may be reached on (703) 351-2365.

Yours sincerely,

/s/ STANSFIELD TURNER
